Florida Novelist Plans Book Signing in Munford

Writer to sign copies of her novels at restaurant

Pensacola, FL, June 2, 2010 -- Novelist Tommie Lyn, author of four novels of romantic suspense and historical fiction, will be at The Glass House Restaurant in Munford for a book signing later this month.

The two-day event is scheduled for June 18 and June 20, from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m.

The event is hosted by J.C. and Charline Watts, whose daughter, Kay, owns the restaurant, which is located at 21 Ashley Lane in Munford.

Lyn resided in Munford in the 1960s where she graduated from Munford High School. She is married to former Munford resident Hoyt Blackburn and currently resides in Milton, Florida on the upper Gulf Coast--a region that provided the setting for three of her novels.

"My love of the Southern people and their culture...is the basis and the backdrop for everything I write," Lyn notes.

The book signing will include a drawing for one of Lyn's novels.

"I'm looking forward to visiting Munford and renewing a lot of old acquaintances," she says.
